Re: Claim number 65858 - Objection for Claim to be Disallowed & Expunged
United States Bankruptcy Court Southern District of New York
In re Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc (case 08-13555 (JMP))

My name is Tal Lev Ari, I was an employee of Lehman Brothers Limited, a UK subsidiary of Lehman Brothers Holding Inc, at the time the company filed for protection under chapter 11. Lehman Brothers Limited, along with other European subsidiaries, was put into administration in the UK following the bankruptcy of the US parent company.

Claim 65858 is for a total amount of $178,077.26, on the basis of deferred compensation for services provided. CSA awards, which are equity based units in Lehman Brothers Holding Inc, were awarded to employees as part of the employee compensation scheme. Of the total claim amount a sum of $10,950 has priority as it was earned within 180 days before filing of the bankruptcy petition.

Shortly after Lehman Brothers Limited was put into administration, claim forms covering claims arising out of employment were sent out by PWC, the UK administrator, to all former employees of Lehman Brothers Limited. These were filed, processed and dealt with by PWC/ Lehman Human Resources staff without any further involvement of the employees. Under such claim certain payments covering holiday entitlement and redundancy were made.

Upon the receipt of the Notice of Deadline for Filing Proofs of Claim from the United States Bankruptcy Court Southern District of New York in July 2009, I contacted both PWC and Lehman Human Resources staff to inquire whether any action was required on my part. It should be highlighted, that due to the complexity of the Lehman administration both teams (PWC and Lehman Human Resources) designated to assist affected employees were not very cooperative, attentive or easily accessible. When I finally managed to talk to one representative over the phone I was advised that since the CSA claims arise out of my employment no further action was required on my end. Since I did not need to submit proofs of claim to the UK court because PWC/Lehman HR submitted the claims on behalf of the employees – I did not question the advice provided.

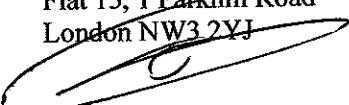

Only after the Bar Date Order had lapsed, I learned from two ex-colleagues I ran into by chance, that they were advised to the contrary, i.e. that they themselves should provide the proofs of claim to the US Bankruptcy Court. Once I have learnt this I immediately sent my proof of claim accompanied by a letter describing the circumstances that led to the delay to the approved claim agent.

I have suffered significant financial losses, including my employment, as a result of the bankruptcy of Lehman Brothers. Throughout the process I have acted based on advice and instructions given by representatives of a team portrayed as “a dedicated team to employees’ queries”. Under no circumstances did I deliberately or negligently fail to follow instructions received.

On the grounds of being misguided by Lehman Human Resources/PWC representatives I plead with you not to disallow or expunge my claim despite the late submission.

As I live in the UK I contacted Honorable James M. Peck's clerk and asked to participate in the hearing telephonically. Details of the court conference services were provided and arrangements are in place for me to dial in.

Chapter 11 Case No. 08-13555 (JMP)
United States Bankruptcy Court Southern District of New York
Objection against the disallowance of Claim Number 65311 and Claim Number 66283

October 8, 2010

By registered mail

Dear Sir,

I hereby oppose the disallowance of the aforementioned claims.

1. Facts

At the end of October 2009, I received the document attached hereto as Annex 1. At that time, we were on holiday abroad and only returned home on October 31, 2009. On October 31, 2009 (a Sunday), we took note of Annex 1.

According to Annex 1, a proof of claim needed to be filed by November 2, 2009.

On November 2, 2009, I partly completed the form and handed it over to my bank, ING Belgium NV (the "Bank"). The Bank further completed the form and called Epic on November 2, 2009. The Bank told me that they asked Epic whether they could submit the claim by fax (which was not the case) and how they needed to submit the form, taking into account the timing. The Bank informed me that they were told by Epic during that call that Epic was going to take into account all claims submitted prior to November 15, 2009 and therefore instructed the Bank to send the form by mail. On the basis of that information, the Bank sent the form by mail to the attention of Epic.

When completing the form, the Bank however misspelled my name and did not properly fill in the amount of the claim (not knowing what EUR/USD exchange rate had to be used).

According to your records (Annex 2), the form was received on November 10, 2010.

Epiq Systems informs me on January 19, 2010 that the claim has been recorded by Epiq under number nr 65311. I checked the respective website and acknowledge that there are errors in the claim. I inform the Bank thereof. The Bank informs Epic with respect to the errors on February 5, 2010 (Annex 3).

On February 11, 2010, Epiq Systems sends us Annex 4, requesting us to file a new claim as an update of the previous claim. The new claim is numbered 66283 (Annex 5). The new form does not refer to the old claim that was already filed and registered under number 65311, although it all relates to the same matter. The updated claim is received on February 17, 2010 (Annex 6).

At the end of September 2010, we are informed that both claim 65311 and claim 66283 (which relate in fact all to the same facts) are disallowed because of late filing (Annex 7 and 8).

2. Reasons for opposing to the disallowance

Taking into account the aforementioned facts, it was impossible to file a claim before November 2, 2009. It cannot be expected from a creditor to be able to file a claim in due time if that person is only informed literally a couple of days prior to the deadline. If the judgement dates from July

08-1355,2009 Doc 12194 Filed 10/14/10 Entered 10/20/10 15:04:54 Main Document it is not acceptable to only inform a creditor at the end of October 2009 and just leaving him a couple of days to file a claim. The way in which this was handled does not allow a creditor to exercise his rights and that is not acceptable.
P0.5 of 13

I therefore strongly oppose to the disallowance of the aforementioned claims and wish that the claims are accepted.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, on September 13, 2010, Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. and certain of its affiliates (collectively, the "Debtors") filed their Forty-Second Omnibus Objection to Claims (Late-Filed Lehman Programs Securities Claims) (the "Objection") with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court").¹

The Objection requests that the Bankruptcy Court expunge, reduce, reclassify, and/or disallow your claim(s) listed above under CLAIM(S) TO BE DISALLOWED & EXPUNGED on the ground that said claims(s) violate the Bankruptcy Court's July 2, 2009 order setting forth the procedures and deadlines for filing proofs of claim in these chapter 11 cases (the "Bar Date Order" [Docket No. 4271], as they were filed after the November 2, 2009 bar date. Any claim that the Bankruptcy Court expunges and disallows will be treated as if it had not been filed and you will not be entitled to any distribution on account thereof.

If you do NOT oppose the disallowance, expungement, reduction or reclassification of your claim(s) listed above under CLAIM(S) TO BE DISALLOWED & EXPUNGED, then you do NOT need to file a written response to the Objection and you do NOT need to appear at the hearing.

If you DO oppose the disallowance, expungement, reduction or reclassification of your claim(s) listed above under CLAIM(S) TO BE DISALLOWED & EXPUNGED, then you MUST file with the Court and serve on the parties listed below a
